BROCHURE 2012

IMAGINE... Flying out to a top holiday destination for not one, not two, not even three weeks... but A WHOLE MONTH or more of non-stop fun! Amazing beaches, lively clubs and bars, world-class DJs, drinks on tap all Summer long... This brochure will tell you everything you need to know...

A working holiday abroad with Air Pro is your chance to live and work abroad, with fun-loving people your age, enjoying the carefree atmosphere of a major holiday resort AND earning enough money to see you through...

Sounds like a dream?

With an Air Pro working holiday, spending an entire summer season a sun-soaked resort with a never-ending party atmosphere is not a dream – it's an exciting reality.

With new friendships, discoveries, freedom and adventure to add to the mix, you're looking at not just a summer job abroad, but an unforgettable experience!

THE RESORTS:

You can expect to find summer jobs such as bar work, restaurant reps, jelly shot girls and glass collectors. There really is something for everyone, and the work varies from night-time bar work to day-time beach work!

However, you do need to be in resort to find these jobs and talking to the bar, club and restaurant managers who are hiring for the season – and that's what Air Pro will help you to do

JOBS in MAGALUF:

Enjoy a constant party atmosphere and great workers benefits

This resort is cheap to get to, which makes working holidays abroad in Magaluf one of the biggest and craziest party places you're likely to work in this summer.

We've also found that the benefits of summer jobs in Magaluf tend to be better than any other resort, with free drinks when you're working, great workers' prices on drinks and free entry to most clubs on the island when you're not!

JOBS in TENERIFE:

Working holidays in Tenerife are ideal for first-timers!

With plenty of cash to be made on this busy little island, and minimal outgoings, working holidays in Tenerife are ideal for beginners wanting bar work abroad or to find bar rep jobs and experience the working holidays way of life.

If you've never worked abroad before, we recommend a working holiday in Tenerife because Tenerife managers are more willing to take on staff with no experience and train you up.

JOBS in ZANTE:

Zante is a beginners paradise

This is truly becoming one of the best and upcoming resorts to work in, Zante is the essential mix of music, bars and party atmosphere and you will be working smack bang in the middle of it all.

If you have never worked abroad before and looking for somewhere a little easier to start off, then this is also the perfect place to start. Zante also has incredibly cheap accommodation compared to other resorts!

JOBS in IBIZA:

Constant party atmosphere

In Ibiza, you're far more likely to get work in bars rather than clubs as managers do tend to hire the same staff year in year out!

Finding bar work in Ibiza is far more difficult than any of our other resorts due to more people heading over looking for work. But by being in Ibiza, you'll be rewarded with the biggest clubs in the world and having the best summer of your life!

JOBS in AYIA NAPA:

Carefree clubbing and amazing beaches!

Ayia Napa, with its added security, is once again the busiest and liveliest resort in Europe with its legendary club life and its never-ending after parties.

This has created some great basic-paid jobs with added commission and good worker's prices on drinks. Just make sure you get there at the right time to pick up what's on offer.
